

History Year 2 Knowledge Organiser

Main Learning: Old Artefacts

Key knowledge
Know that things we use today were often different in the past Know how the equipment we have today may have evolved from something in the past Know how mobile telephones are relatively new and are very different from original telephones Know the gramophone was one of the first machines to be able to play recorded music in the home
Know that microwave ovens and air fryers are relatively new cooking appliances Know that before technology our homes were very different

Vocabulary
washing dolly	Used for washing clothes by rotating and applying a downward force on the handle gramophone	One of the oldest ways of listening to recorded music stove	It is a very old form of oven, often heated by a wood or coal fire pantry	A room where food was kept fresh and cool. It was replaced by the fridge parlour	It was a room, usually in a larger house which was a sitting room for people to entertain their guests telegram	It was one of the earliest ways of getting a message to someone using a system of Morse code

	Prior Knowledge–
---	-------------------------